

Keiser University—Fort Lauderdale Exhibitor and Display Agreement

Keiser University is a private, career-oriented, and 501(c)3 nonprofit university and offers opportunities for artists of all mediums to display art on its premises. These exhibits are open to the public as well as students, faculty, and staff of the university. The university also maintains the right to refuse any art, for any reason, at any time. Thank you for considering Keiser University as a place to display your art.

Terms and Restrictions:

1. All art must be ready to display, including framing and wire hanging, if necessary.
2. Artists retains the responsibility for display drop-off and pickup.
3. Once installed, art must stay on exhibit for the entire length of the agreed upon term, unless other arrangements are made between the artist and the university. An appropriate replacement item may be required in the event that early removal is necessary.
4. Keiser University is not responsible for the damage of any art, for any reason.
5. The exhibitor retains all liability resulting from Keiser University’s display of artworks. The exhibitor must complete the Indemnification Agreement (enclosed) prior to installation.
